Anti-Ragging Policy

Sri Meenakshi Government Arts College for Women (Autonomous) adheres to the UGC Regulations, Government Guidelines, and State Act in prohibiting all forms of ragging on campus. Ragging is strictly prohibited at the college. The Principal serves as the Chairperson and a team of faculty members are in-Charge of the anti-ragging cell. Students can contact the Staff-in-Charge at any time if they have any ragging-related issues. The following are the steps done to combat ragging on college campus and in hostels.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Ragging is strictly prohibited inside the college premises.
2. The students' Union is strengthened to prevent Ragging.
3. First-year students are given freedom to join the student union in order to overcome their concerns and socialise with their peers.
4. Severe punishments are announced to make the campus ragging free.
5. The students are under surveillance to ensure a happy learning atmosphere

Policy on Sexual Harassment Prevention

The College strives to ensure that the students are in a secure environment. In addition to several safety measures, the college maintains a dedicated Cell for Sexual Harassment Prevention to safeguard the safety of all the students. Sexual harassment of a student by fellow students or staff on campus or in public (in the form of obscene oral or written abuse, sexual approaches, or unethical sexual behaviour) is taken very seriously, and reports should be made to the Cell.

VISION: To create awareness among students about Sexual Harassment through Mentor-Mentee system

MISSION: To maintain a safe and secured positive atmosphere to get empowered and face the challenges of the society.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Treat all the students with dignity and respect
2. Make them empowered in all walks of life
3. Refrain from any unpleasant behaviour that has sexual connotation
4. Report sexual harassment experienced and/or witnessed to team immediately and abide by the complaint handling procedure of the company.
